FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 6, 2025

"The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into His harvest." Pray for vocations! If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Mark Morley, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988.

vocations@hamiltondiocese.com hamiltondiocese.com/vocations/

When I was a young child, my mom used to send me out to the corner store for bread, and I used to protest that I wouldn't go without my sister. I felt safer going with her than going alone out in the unknown. Why am I sharing this?

In today's gospel, the Lord appointed the seventy to go ahead of him in pairs and make known his word and his presence. As we grow up, the unknown becomes known, and we learn to distinguish the sheep amongst wolves. With the presence of God, we are no longer afraid to do what we are called to do. God wants us to work for his kingdom, to spread the good news of the gospel, so others can join. The Gospel invitation, "Peace to this house!" is reassuring, therefore: all that is needed is an open heart to listen. This journey may be difficult, and sometimes we may need to shake off the dust, so we won't be detoured by our failures and work to keep our peace.

God calls us to do this critical work not for our glory, but for everyone to know this generosity. God knows his children and we will be recognized through our love and deeds for others, sharing his peace. Blessed be God forever! Ildiko O'Dacre, Cambridge, ON

As we close this school year,
we pause in gratitude, Lord.
Thank You for the knowledge gained,

faith and wisdom. Bless our students,
teachers, and families with rest,
renewal, and joy this summer.
Keep us safe in Your care, and prepare our hearts for all that lies ahead.
