Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

The Reluctant Saint: The Story of St. Joseph Cupertino

This film portrays the life of St. Joseph of Cupertino, the humble Franciscan friar who literally rose to sainthood. In the impoverished village of seventeenth century Cupertino, Italy, Joseph's peasant mother convinces the reluctant abbot to accept her son into the monastery. With the support of the kindly local bishop who sees in him a great deal more than others do, and by a series of miraculous incidents, the simple but pious Joseph is ordained a priest.

THE COLLECTION FOR THE NEEDS OF THE CHURCH IN CANADA-SEPTEMBER 24, 2023

The collection for the Needs of the Church in Canada is held on the last Sunday in September (generally the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time, occasionally the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time). This collection allows the Catholic faithful to express their solidarity with their diocese or eparchy, and also provides an opportunity to support the work of their regional episcopal assembly, as well as the national mission of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops.

The pastoral works made possible by this collection are truly integral to the vitality and dynamism of the Catholic Church in our country. In recent years, particular emphasis has been given to the relationship of the Church in Canada with Indigenous Peoples, as well as the need to walk together with them toward truth, justice, healing, reconciliation and hope. An important point in this journey was the visit of Pope Francis to Edmonton, Quebec City and Iqaluit in July 2022. As Pope Francis stated in Edmonton, "I want to thank the Bishops for their work in making my visit possible...a united Episcopal Conference is able to do great things and produce much fruit."

This collection is also integral to the support and sustainability of a number of worthy ministries, projects, and initiatives which serve all of the faithful in Canada in areas like evangelization, catechesis, social justice, ecumenical and inter-faith dialogue, youth engagement, family and life, and responsible ministry.

ST. MATTHEW, APOSTLE AND EVANGELIST
SEPTEMBER 21

No one was more shunned by the Jews than a publican, who was a Jew working for the Roman enemy by robbing his own people and making a large personal profit. Publicans were not allowed to trade, eat, or even pray with others Jews.

One day, while seated at his table of books and money, Jesus looked at Matthew and said two words: "Follow me." This was all that was needed to make Matthew rise, leaving his pieces of silver to follow Christ. His original name, "Levi," in Hebrew signifies "Adhesion" while his new name in Christ, Matthew, means "Gift of God." The only other outstanding mention of Matthew in the Gospels is the dinner party for Christ and His companions to which he invited his fellow tax-collectors. The Jews were surprised to see Jesus with a publican, but Jesus explained that he had come "not to call the just, but sinners."

St. Matthew is known to us principally as an Evangelist, with his Gospel being the first in position in the New Testament. His Gospel was written to convince the Jews that their anticipated Messiah had come in the person of Jesus.

Not much else is known about Matthew. According to tradition, he preached in Egypt and Ethiopia and further places East. Some legends say he lived until his nineties, dying a peaceful death, others say he died a martyr's death.

In the traditional symbolization of the evangelists, based on Ezech. 1:5-10 and Rev. 4:6-7, the image of the winged man is accorded to Matthew because his Gospel begins with the human genealogy of Christ.
