NINETEENTH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME – AUGUST 13, 2023

“Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.” We can sometimes be afraid of God’s call to priesthood, diaconate, religious or consecrated life. Get hold of yourselves! If God is calling you, contact Fr. Mark Morley, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988. vocations@hamiltondiocese.com hamiltondiocese.com/vocations

In today’s Gospel, the disciples sit helplessly as their boat is tossed about by the storm. Similarly, many times our lives are overwhelmed with howling winds and merciless waves, which we cannot avoid or control. It is so easy to become overwhelmed, anxious, and afraid and to simply give up. However, while the storms may be stronger than we are, they are not stronger than God. When Peter put his trust in the Lord and came toward Jesus, the storm lost all its power. Through Jesus, Peter conquered his fears and walked peacefully while the world around him crashed and howled. The moment he lost focus and became frightened, Peter’s fears took over and devoured him.

When we put our trust in Jesus, he will conquer our fears. We will walk peacefully through this valley of tears, and the storms of this world and in our own lives will lose their power over us. Let us have faith in Jesus, and never take our eyes or our hearts off of him. No matter what we have done or failed to do, it is never too late to cry out, as Peter did. “Lord, save me!” Unto the hour of death, Jesus will instantly reach out his hands of mercy to catch us. Jesus, I trust in you.

God, the source of creation and love, You invite each of us to serve you through the life which is your gift. May your grace encourage men and women to heights of holiness through service to the Church as married couples, priests, consecrated virgins, sisters, brothers, and lay ministers. Make me an instrument to encourage others to give of themselves and challenge me to do the same. Amen.

Today, as these statues grace our church, as a sign of gratitude and devotion to prayer, from the original Italians from San Giorgio Morgeto, they stand to represent our newest parishioners, from all over the globe. They also felt the same feelings and doubts that the original parishioners had in coming to a new foreign land, leaving their countries to come to Canada, and to Sacred Heart.

We WELCOME our newest parishioners from the following countries ...

Poland, Croatia, Germany, Holland, Nigeria, Switzerland, Lebanon, India, Cameroon, Philippines, Ireland, Germany.
