TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME– AUGUST 21, 2022

The Lord is calling people from the East and West and from North and South as priests, deacons, sisters and brothers. Are you one of them? If God is calling you contact Bishop Wayne Lobsinger,

Director of Vocations and Priestly Formation, Diocese of Hamilton (905-528-7988).

vocations@hamiltondiocese.com www.hamiltondiocese.com

The Prophet Isaiah shares with us a vision of people of “all nations and tongues” coming to the Lord. Jesus also speaks of people coming from “east and west, from north and south”, to feast in God’s kingdom. Paradoxically, though, Jesus first speaks about “the narrow door.” How can the way to God be both narrow and wide?

Perhaps it is narrow in the sense that we cannot merit it through some special status, like race, religion or class. We cannot earn it by performing correct rituals, saying the right prayers, following the rules. If we rely on our own merit or status, the way to God seems impossibly narrow.

We don’t merit or earn God’s love, mercy and grace: they are freely given. Our call is to receive and respond. Luke’s Gospel shows us many unlikely people who are God’s chosen, God’s beloved: the young Mary, her cousin Elizabeth, the shepherds, fishermen, the woman who anointed Jesus’ feet, the Samaritan leper, Zacchaeus the tax collector. God’s love is widely available, and those who know they have received this gift want to live it and share it with others.

This is our call as disciples; this is what we celebrate in the Eucharist. As God’s beloved, we trust that salvation is in loving God and one another.

Dinah Simmons, Halifax,NS

MEMORIAL OF THE QUEENSHIP OF MARY-AUGUST 22

The faithful, under the guidance of an unerring Catholic instinct, have ever recognized the queenly dignity of the Mother of "The King of kings and Lord of lords": the Fathers, the Doctors of the Church, Popes, down through the centuries, have given authoritative expression to this truth and the crowning testimony to this common belief is to be found clearly expressed in the wonders of art and in the profound teaching of the liturgy. In their turn theologians have shown the fitting nature of this title of Queen as applied to the Mother of God, since she was so closely associated with the redemptive work of her Son and is the Mediatrix of all graces. Pius XII, by his encyclical letter of October 11, 1954, granted the unanimous desire of the faithful and their pastors and instituted the Memorial of the Queenship of Mary, giving sanction thus to a devotion that was already paid by the faithful throughout the world to the sovereign Mother of heaven and earth.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW-AUGUST 24

In St. John's Gospel, Bartholomew is known by the name Nathaniel (the liturgy does not always seem aware of this identity). He hailed from Cana in Galilee, was one of the first disciples called by the Lord. On that initial meeting Jesus uttered the glorious compliment: "Behold, an Israelite indeed in whom there is no guile!" After the Resurrection he was favored by becoming one of the few apostles who witnessed the appearance of the risen Savior on the sea of Galilee (John 21:2). Following the Ascension he is said to have preached in Greater Armenia and to have been martyred there. While still alive, his skin was torn from his body. The Armenians honor him as the apostle of their nation. Concerning the fate of his relics, the Martyrology says: "His holy body was first taken to the island of Lipari (north of Sicily), then to Benevento, and finally to Rome on an island in the Tiber where it is honored by the faithful with pious devotion."

The Church of Armenia has a national tradition that St. Jude Thaddeus and St. Bartholomew visited the Armenians early in the first century and introduced Christianity among the worshippers of the god Ahura Mazda. The new faith spread throughout the land, and in 302 A.D., St. Gregory the Illuminator baptized the king of Armenia, Dertad the Great, along with many of his followers. Since Dertad was probably the first ruler to embrace Christianity for his nation, the Armenians proudly claim they were the first Christian State.

ST. MONICA – AUGUST 27

St. Monica (333-387) was born in Tagaste, northern Africa and died in Ostia, near Rome. Monica was a Christian, but her husband Patricius was a pagan and a man of loose morals. Monica's virtues and prayers, however, converted him, and he was baptized a year before his death. When her son, Augustine, joined the Manichean sect and went astray in faith and morals, Monica's tears and prayers for her son were incessant. She followed him to Milan, where Augustine went to teach, and there continued to storm heaven with her prayers for her son. Finally, she had the joy of witnessing St. Ambrose baptize Augustine in 387. She died in Ostia, as she and her son gazed at the sea and discoursed about the joys of the blessed.

LORD I NEED A MOMENT...

Lord, I need a moment,
 I need a time out, to remember
 Your presence deep within me,
 Within the good earth,
 Within my very desire to take a moment.
 Help me to be silent and still,
 To settle again into the now,
 The only place I will ever find you.
 Help me to keep the business of the day
 In some kind of perspective;
 To remember that , whatever happens,
 This too will pass.
 Help me with the anxieties
 That are always there, like a headache-
 The loved ones I worry about,
 The work pressures that sometimes overwhelm me,
 The colleagues I don't get along with.
 Help me to be loving and thoughtful,
 To listen when I need to,
 To be present to those in front of me,
 To be brave when I need to be brave
 And to sense your presence in all my encounters.
