ADORERS NEEDED AS ADORATION 'ANCHORS' AND 'SUBS'

We are blessed at Sacred Heart to have Our Lord available in Adoration each Friday from 9am to 7pm. To keep this blessing available for all, we are currently looking for more regular anchors, individuals who can commit to being present for a particular hour during the day each Friday. We are also looking for committed substitutes, individuals who are willing to come in on an "as needed" basis when anchors are not available for their regular shifts. If you are able to help out in either capacity, please call Angela at 519-836-6035 or email the parish office: sacredheart20014@gmail.com

Our Lord is asking each of us personally, "Could you not watch one hour with Me?" (Mk 14:34)

OPLATEK

BLESSED CHRISTMAS WAFERS (OPLATEK) ARE AVAILABLE IN THE CHURCH AND THE OFFICE.

ADVENT MOVIE NIGHTs at ST JOSEPH PARISH

Join us for our final movie features the "Song of Bernadette" Thursday, December 8 at 7pm: this drama focuses on Bernadette Soubirous (Jennifer Jones), a young French woman who experiences vivid visions of the Virgin Mary. While many dismiss her claims, certain people, including the priest Dominique Peyramale (Charles Bickford), slowly begin to believe her. Eventually, Bernadette is deemed a saint, and becomes a nun at a convent, where she must deal with jealousy from others who resent her revered status. All are welcome. Popcorn and drinks are provided. Free Admission!

THE SECOND WEEK IN ADVENT

The world, which is bent on power, never seems thoroughly to grasp the paradox that as only little children discover the bigness of the universe, so only humble hearts ever find the greatness of God. The world misses this lesson, because it confuses littleness with weakness, childlikeness with childishness, and humility with an inferiority complex. It thinks of power only in terms of physical force, and of wisdom only in terms of the vain knowledge of the spirit of the day. It forgets that great moral strength may be hidden in physical weakness, as Omnipotence was wrapped in swaddling bands; and that great Wisdom may be found in simple faith as the Eternal Mind was found in the form of a Babe. There is strength – strength before which the angels trembled, strength before which the stars prostrated, and strength before which the very throne of Herod shook in fear. It was the strength of that Divine and Awful Love which shrank from nothing to convince us of God's measure of what is really great and big. As He who is God, descended even to the lowliness of childhood, as the first step to his everlasting triumph, so must we descend from our ignorant pride to the level of what we are in his eyes. "Unless you become like little children," is his characteristic word, "you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven." To become as little children means nothing more than humility or truthfulness in judgment about ourselves, a recognition of the disproportion between our poor life and the eternal life before us, an acknowledgement of our weakness, our frailty, our sin, the poorness of all we are doing now, and yet the power and wisdom which is to be ours, provided we are humble enough to kneel before a Babe in a manger of straw, and confess Him to be our Lord, Our Life and Our All.
